

goods, cash, people and, allegedly, weapons. Agencies

Ohio Governor John Kasich and Florida's US Senator Marco Rubio — we hold their pre-born in the United States and brought into the country illegally. Both said they not even ans-

KU celebrates Women's Day

ICSINE

JORHAT, MAR 10: The School of Social Sciences, Kaziranga University (KU) organised a day-long programme here recently to celebrate International Women's Day with great fervour, stated a press release.

The programme started with the lighting of the inaugural lamp by Dr. Jyoti Rekha Hazarika, noted litterateur and Associate Professor of Dept of Assamese J.B College, who attended the function as chief guest.

The inaugural meeting was also attended by well-known litterateur Juri Borgohain as guest of honour.

In their addresses, the two dignitaries appealed to the women community to assert their rights, and appreciated the efforts of the School of Social Sciences for organising such women community. Prof. B.N Borthakur,

kind of event in the university. They expected that in the coming year more such events would be organised among the tribal communities — Tiwa, Karbi or Dimasa.

KU Chancellor M.D.Khetan, while addressing the meeting, conveyed his regard to the Dean, School of Social Sciences, addressed the gathering. In his speech he said, "Woman is the liaison between two generations and because of her qualities like endurance, forgiveness, generosity, love, affection and sympathy etc. our nation is symbolised as Mother India."

Prof Borthakur remarked that, in spite of the constitutional provisions and prevalence of some other mechanisms, women are not getting equal treatment in society vis-a-vis their male counterpart.

The inaugural session was followed by a street play competition among the students of KU as well as the students of neighbouring institutions.

The team named as Aaluran (Protest) was adjudged the best team and the students of HPB Girls' College named as Amar Akash, Golaghat received the special Jury Award.

The judges for the competition were Priti Ranjan Boruah and Santu Moni Sarmah. Basant Khetan, Pro-Chancellor, distributed the prizes to the winning teams.

GUWAHATI, MAR 10: The Assam Chapter of EIRC of Company Secretaries participated in the International Women's Day celebration by Senior Secondary School at its school premises released a press release.

CS Biman Debnath, Chairman, Vivek Sharma, Secretary, Kumar Chhajer, Treasurer, Pankaj Jain, MC Member, Assam Chapter of EIRC of ICS, Saikatamuli, Senior CS, Ritika Agarwal, Member, Sarma Roy (Senior Officer), ICSI & Office In-Charge, Assam Chapter of EIRC of ICSI) & Mani (staff, NE Chapter of ICSI) represented The Assam Chapter of Company Secretaries participated in the programme.

The authorities of St. Mary's Senior Secondary School felicitated the representatives from ICSI. ICSI also felicitated all the teaching and non-teaching staff of the school. Around 2000 students were present on the occasion.

CS Biman Debnath, Chairman,