

Programme : Workshop on Weather Forecasting, Crop Planning, Soil Health Management , Promoting Fishery and making Housing cost effective durable and resilient in the flood affected areas of Golaghat district

Venue: Conference room, Admin building, Kaziranga University(KU)

(With support from the experts of Assam Agriculture University, Jorhat Engineering College Jorhat and other Institutions)

Date: 26th Sept, 2019

Time : 10AM-3.45 PM

Time	Programme
10.00AM	Welcome by Dr Braja Mishra, Dean , School of Social Sciences KU
10.05AM	Felicitation of Guests and Inaugural Remarks by Dr P. K. Mishra, Vice Chancellor, Kaziranga University
10.15 AM	Overview and objectives of the programme Mr Sudhanshu S. Singh, CEO Humanitarian Aid International(HAI)
10.20 AM	Descriptions of the villages where intervention is being planned by Mr Tirtha Saikia, Secretary, NEADS
10.30AM	Weather Forecasting: How to get the information at micro-level and making use of it for promoting agriculture in flood affected areas. By Dr R.L.Deka, Associate Professor, Agro- meteorology, AAU Followed by discussion with farmers and other stakeholders
11.15AM	Soil Health Management and conservation in the post flood situation. Simple techniques/methods for farmers for maintaining good soil health (need of soil health card, if required) By Dr Samiron Dutta, Professor, Soil Science, AAU
12.00PM	Appropriate crop planning in flood prone areas, so that farmers minimise their losses and maximise benefits Crop intensification and diversification Paradigm shift in methods of cultivation By Dr K .Kurmi, Professor, Agronomy, AAU
12.45 PM	Exploring fishery a livelihood option for flood affected areas. Using existing endowment of water bodies (including CPR), support from government programmes By Mr Pankaj Jyoti Mahanta, District Fishery Officer
1.30-2.15PM	Lunch Break
2.15-3PM	Improvement in housing structure and material used for making it more resilient to disasters like flood and yet affordable By Dr Nayanmoni Chetia, Jorhat Engineering College
3.00-3.30PM	Opinion of all experts to devise a mechanism so that farmers get timely technical support. Building synergy with government and other programmes. Action Plan
3.30-3.45PM	Wrap up by Mr Sudhanshu Singh & Dr Braja Mishra Vote of thanks by Mr Tirtha Saikia