

REPORT ON INTERACTIVE SESSION CONDUCTED AT SOB

Title: Developing Potential Entrepreneurs

Date: 10th September 2019

Introduction of the Resource Person

Prof. Prabal k. Sen, is a consultant and strategic advisor of Economics, Banking and Entrepreneurship Management. He has an experience of nearly four decades in these fields. He is a renowned personality in the field of banking and economics. He has a niche for identifying potentials in entrepreneurial activities, the reason which made him the Founder Chairperson of Entrepreneurship Development Centre (EDC) at Xavier School of Management (XLRI), Jamshedpur. He has also worked with various prestigious organizations.

Participant's Profile

All the students of B.Com, BBA, M.Com and SoB Faculty members participated in different sessions.

Sessions Held

Session I (11.00 to 12.30 PM) - B.Com, BBA and M.Com final year students

Session II (2.00 to 3.30 PM) - B.Com and BBA 1st and 2nd year students

Session III (4.00 to 5.00 PM) - SoB Faculty members

Description about the Program

In the first session, Prof. Sen was welcomed by the Dean of SoB, Prof. Rupak Gupta and in the second session, he was welcomed by the Associate Dean of SoB, Dr. Bikash Kumar Gogoi. For both the sessions he was invited to the dais after reading his profile. Prof. Sen has given a brief introduction on entrepreneurship and in his talk he has mostly emphasized on the practical problems and prospects of being an entrepreneur from this part of the country. He explained his share of problems encountered in the field and how he solved them. Both the sessions had a question and answer round and Prof. Sen has answered all the quires raised by the students. The programmes ended with the vote of thanks proposed by Dr. Pranami Sharma.

In the third session, the Dean of SoB felicitated Prof. Sen with a traditional Gamusa and a memento. The session began with a short introduction of all the faculty members and the discussion was related with Indian economic and social conditions after independence-till date. His practical knowledge on the topic made it effortlessly easy for the members to understand the scenario and acknowledge it.

The entire programme was co-ordinated with the support of the Dean and all the members of SoB.

