

Two-day program on Data Analysis using SPSS on 31st Jan & 1st Feb, 2022

A workshop on data analysis for faculty members and MBA students of the School of Business, Kaziranga University, took place on 31st Jan 2020 and 1st February 2022, between 10:30 AM to 4:30 PM. The workshop was anchored by Dr. Manvinder Singh Pahwa - who has over two decades of rich work experience cutting across academics and research using SPSS.

The objectives of the workshop was to provide the platform for discussion on the statistical methods in higher studies as well as to train and inculcate the skills for Data Analysis using SPSS Hands on practical sessions on data handling, analysis & deriving preliminary results were the core highlights of the workshop.

A total of 33 participants, including business school faculty, took advantage of this opportunity to learn data analysis using SPSS.

