Notice

Ref: KU- Registrar/Admin/2020/12/06

Dated: 18.12.2020

The university has put in its best efforts to continue academic programmes using various ICT tools of teaching learning process for the students enrolled in different programmes (UG&PG) of the university in the session 2020 through online mode.

Please note that - the decision has been taken in order to facilitate an effective teaching learning process for the benefit of the students, who had been facing hindrance due to poor internet connectivity, unavailability of adequate study materials in terms of text books, reference book, journals and also doubt clearing session usually conducted in small groups by faculties. These activities are a pertinent aspect of a teacher's student's classroom learning and interaction.

1. All hostellers are advised to complete all formalities related to hostel registration and subsequent fee deposition before 2nd January 2021. The students will do the formalities through online mode.
2. 1st semester hostellers are advised to report to campus on 9th January 2021.
3. The festival Magh Bihu is observed in January which is considered as a harvest festival, marked with community feast and bonfires. Kaziranga University is considered as one family, therefore this year when the hostellers will be in campus to complete their academic activities, and as they are also advised not to move out of the university campus to restrict themselves against the chance of getting infected by COVID 19 virus, the Magh Bihu festival will be celebrated on campus with students, faculties and staff as per tradition.
4. The regular offline classes for 1st Semester (UG and PG) programmes maintaining all Covid 19 protocols will commence from 15th January 2021.
5. The academic activities conducted through online mode shall continue till 12th January 2021.

6. In order to ensure that the class time is lost due to the pandemic, students are strongly advised to attend the classes regularly and without fail. No concessions and/or any excuses whatsoever will be made or entertained in relation to attendance.
